DETAILED ACTION

1. Amendment received December 08 2005 has been acknowledged.
2. Applicant's request for reconsideration of the finality of the rejection of the last Office action (Mailed September 08, 2005) is persuasive. Because the US reference Katou used in the "First Final Office Action" mailed September 8, 2005 is not prior art because of the filing date, the finality in the First Final Office Action is hereby withdrawn. The "First After Final Amendment" (Filed December 08, 2005) has been entered. A Final Office Action is set Forth since Applicant's amendment (Filed June 23, 2005) necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1, 2, 5, 6, 9, 10, 13, 14, 16, 17, 19, and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Smith et al (2002/0143725 A1).

Smith et al. discloses a method of managing consumer goods and/or reagents (such as reagent chemicals and/or targeted chemical) used in an analyzer (via equipment that is used to synthesize target chemical), comprising the steps of:

recording consumption information on consumer goods used in the analyzer (via data entry 110 populating a database); sorting the consumption information of the consumer goods according to consumer goods supplier (via corresponding plurality of listing in a supplier database); and transmitting the sorted consumption information to a management unit for the analyzer or consumer goods suppliers supply management units (see paragraph 0046), and analyzing the consumption status of consumer goods used in the analyzer according to consumer goods supplier and consumer goods supplied (via transaction 130 that is performed to electronically order the reagent chemicals that are used to synthesize the target chemical, the equipment that is used to synthesize the target chemical and/or the target chemical itself).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

6. Claims 4, 8, 12, 15, 18, and 21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Smith et al.

Smith et al. further discloses confirming supply status based on the consumer goods supply management information (paragraph 0086 via obtaining tracking number).

Although, Smith et al. does not explicitly disclose requesting payment from an analyzer administrator, however, it is would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have including the means for requesting payment when purchased is made in Smith et al. since purchase order transaction includes shipping and payment and the Examiner takes Official Notice as such.

Response to Arguments

7. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1, 2, 4-6, 8-10 and 12-21 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in the Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
